

KAN is a co-operative of practicing artists with a community vision in downtown Lindsay, Ontario.

Membership Form

There are three levels of yearly membership with KAN:

Artist: $50 per year

Student (with proof of student status at an institute of learning): $25 per year

Patron: $250 per year

Membership has a variety of benefits, including:

- newsletter
- invitations to all openings
- a discount to participate in classes and workshops held throughout the year
- participation in specified members' shows, held twice a year
- a discount to participate in themed shows throughout the year
- two to three weeks of free exhibition time in the storefront window of Art on Kent
- discounts when ordering art supplies from Aboveground Art Supplies and Curry's Art Supplies
- a discount rental of Art on Kent
- listed in artists' directory on our website, with a link to one's personal artist page

Please note that as a co-operative, all members are expected to contribute to the running of KAN – either by gallery sitting once a month (minimum) and/or sitting on a committee and assisting with the running of the co-op in some way. This is a requirement of membership.
